THE MAN UP CLUB PRESENTS:

GODFLOW

HIP HOP & HOPE FEST

Godflow is a premiere Christian Hip Hop Festival in the Twin Cities with a focus on reaching youth and young adults in the eleven-county metropolitan area. Although Godflow is based in the Twin Cities, the outreach is wide spread across the U.S. as hundreds of artists, musicians and urban youth workers, all passionate about street evangelism, emerge to deliver a message of love, hope, and faith in Christ. Godflow is a multicultural, multi-ethnic outreach that commissions urban youth culture to be an active and diligent voice to deconstruct racism in their school and communities. Goodflow brings most prolific gospel rap ministers from across the nation share one stage to proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ to generation X and Z. The focus is to empower Christian youth culture, offering salvation to the non believer in a message they understand, and equipping them with tangible resources and programming that will meet their practical needs in education and mentorship through life skills, social skills, academic discipline and civic training. We take evangelism a step further by developing them spiritually in non-traditional ways beyond the four walls of the church. Godflow is presented by The Man Up Club, a 501 c-3 nonprofit mentor leadership organization.

As a partner of Godflow your sponsorship allows you to reach and put your product, brand or service directly in front of thousands within the "cool culture" of generation X and Z. The trendsetters and social media socialites of mainstream culture and inclusive of a faith-based community. Given Godflow is an outreach to urban youth culture and young adults is a sure bet to help you connect with a large group of minorities as well as increase diversity, equity, and inclusion in your industries. More importantly, your support of Godflow and The Man Up Club will have a profound impact on helping to decrease violence in the Twin Cities community providing a solution and help to fuel a grass roots mentor program that has a proven track record and reputation for delivering long-term sustainable outcomes. This year Godflow will be hosted in the heart of downtown Minneapolis at the historic concert venue, First Avenue!

Below are multiple ways to partner with The Man Up Club and Godflow. We can also create Partnership packages for your budget. We hope you will partner with this movement to develop youth into holistic young adults of character and revitalize the Twin cities as we build and continue to recover from the residue of racism, riots, and violence.
